Donation Form

BISI is assisting its Iraqi colleagues by offering scholarships, short-term fellowships and material resources to museum, library and university staff. It also hopes to be able to run courses in Iraq when the security situation permits. BISI has sponsored the visits of over twenty-five scholars to the UK since 2003 and has plans to bring an additional three or four Iraqi scholar to the UK during 2011-2012. BISI Scholars are attached to a mentor in an appropriate institution and can conduct research or be involved in training within the fields of anthropology, archaeology, geography, history, languages and related disciplines. Priority will be given to younger scholars in archaeology, ancient languages and heritage studies.

We value your support in this vital work. BISI welcomes corporate sponsors for the Appeal and its Appeal Events. We are very grateful to our past donors, contributors and Appeal lecturers through whom we have raised almost £250,000 to date.
