

CONFERENCE, OCTOBER 18, 2011

Note: All talks last up to 20 minutes + 10 minutes questions unless stated otherwise: Starting times in BOLD

OPENING: (9.30 punctual)

(1): Greeting: Major General Peter Davies, CB, chairman of the Marjan Centre committee. 9.30 – up to 5 minutes:

- 'Conflict and Conservation': what is it? : 9.35 am - 5 minutes + 5 questions
Jasper Humphreys, Director of External Affairs, the Marjan Centre

- Congo Connection: a case study of conflict and conservation:

- (part one): Professor Dr Richard Sullivan of King's College Health Partners
- (part two): Richard Milburn, York University 9.45 – 10.15am

- Warfare and freshwater systems: overview 10.15 – 10.45 am
Dr Rob Francis, Department of Geography, King's College

COFFEE: 10.45– 11.15 am

- War and water: the legacy of Saddam Hussein and beyond (40 mins + 20 questions)
Dr Azzam Alwash, director of NatureIraq 11.15- 12.15 pm

- Rhino poaching in Kenya: a methodology of applied violence:
Dr Felix Patton, African rhino ecologist. 12.15– 12.45 pm

- Climate change and conflict: (40 mins. + questions)
Sir Crispin Tickell GCMG, KCVO 12.45 pm – 1.45 pm

Concluding remarks:

Major General Peter Davies CB (up to 5 minutes)

Finish: 2pm